Edwin Booth and Joe Jefferson have been engaged to appear at the Terre Haute Opera House, next spring.

Messrs. Allen & Egg expect to have their engine and boiler and machinery here next week, for their planing machine.

Capt. Sylvanus J. Bingham, of Evansville, died at Patoka, Saturday. He was a prominent and widely known business man.

An Evansville woman, in addition to being strong minded, strong willed and strong bodied, is a good barber, an excellent seamstress and a fine violinist.

A man in Newark kept marrying to try and get a suitable wife. After four unsuccessful trials he blew out the cavity where the brains ought to have been.

At a menagerie in Indianapolis a small lioness escaped from her cage, and the Chief Police went to the top of the center pole in five minutes. He is reported now as saying that he went up there just for fun, to decide a bet. Besides that, he says he didn't know the lioness was out of her cage, and he didn't go up the pole anyway.

There are five colored men in the United States House of Representatives. Three have been placed upon committees: DeLarge, of South Carolina, on the Committee on Manufactures; Elliott, of the same State, on the Committee on Education and Labor; and Rainey of the same State, on the Committee on Freedmen's Affairs. The Cincinnati Gazette's Indianapolis correspondent thinks the general sentiment of Republicans throughout the State is in favor of holding the State Convention on the 22d of February, as has been the custom for a number of years, and pay no attention to the Democrats, who have postponed the time of holding their Convention from the 8th of January until about the time of the meeting of their National Convention, probably.

The Rockport correspondent of the Evansville Courier says, Hon. James Gentry, our late Representative, the owner of the "old Lincoln farm, made sale of that place yesterday to the railway company for $10,000, cash. It is supposed by people here that the company will lay out a town on Lincoln's homestead, to be called Lincoln, make it a station and sell off lots to those who want to settle there, and thus turn an honest penny on the strength of Lincoln's farm.

BURLINGTON.

Leaving the East and arriving at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best line is acknowledged to be the C. & B. & Q., joined together with the B. & M. Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the Burlington Route.

The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Road, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles.

Another branch of the B. & M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St. Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas. Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and, by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also.

Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towns "high gleaming from afar"—its tree-fringed streams—its rough bluffs and quarries—its corn-oceans stretching over the prairie further than eye can reach.

Land-buyers will be sure to remember it, for they have friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M. R. R. at Burlington, Iowa, or among the four thousand home-steaders and pre-emptors who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm."
